Civil Action No. 1:21-md-03010-PKC

CONSENT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF A MODIFIED CONFIDENTIALITY ORDER

PURSUANT TO RULE 26(c), Defendants, Google LLC, Alphabet Inc., and YouTube LLC, move for entry of a modified confidentiality order on the following grounds:

1. This antitrust action will include the discovery of confidential business information from the parties and non-parties.
2. The Court has previously entered a Confidentiality Order (ECF No. 297), which was intended to cover the handling, use, and disclosure of confidential information produced by the parties and non-parties during discovery.
3. Thereafter, non-party Comcast Corporation, for itself and with the support of other non-parties AT&T, Inc., Microsoft Corporation, Fox Corporation, and T-Mobile USA, Inc., requested that the parties modify the Confidentiality Order to address certain concerns with the procedures in the Confidentiality Order regarding the disclosure of confidential information produced by non-parties to in-house attorneys—that is, Confidentiality Order ¶¶ 14(d), 19, 20-22.
4. The parties and the non-parties identified above have agreed on a modified version of the Confidentiality Order, which addresses these concerns raised by these non-parties—i.e., it deletes Paragraphs 20-22, and modifies Paragraphs 14(d) and 19, along with conforming edits.

5. Google now moves the Court to vacate the current Confidentiality Order and to enter the attached proposed Modified Confidentiality Order in its place (nunc pro tunc to May 11, 2022, the date when the Confidentiality Order was entered).

6. The Plaintiffs and the above-referenced non-parties consent to the relief sought in this motion.

WHEREFORE, Google requests that the Court vacate the current Confidentiality Order (ECF No. 297) and enter the attached proposed Modified Confidentiality Order (nunc pro tunc to May 11, 2022). Proposed orders are submitted herewith.

The parties and the above-referenced non-parties do not seek oral argument on this motion.

Dated: August 31, 2023

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Bradley Justus
